ARPC MARKET UPDATE

24 June 2015

ARPC is on the move

ARPC's operations are being consolidated into a single office in Sydney, with our Canberra office closing by 30 September 2015. The move will place us closer to our insurer customers and reinsurer suppliers.

The process to relocate all roles and functions from Canberra to Sydney will take place over the coming months. A comprehensive plan is in place to ensure our functions are not disrupted while maintaining the same level of service. In the meantime all contact details remain the same.

From 1 October 2015 we will be operating from our existing Sydney office at 56 Pitt Street whilst our new office is prepared. As soon as our new address is confirmed we will notify you through a further market update and email.

More information will be provided in the winter edition of 'Under the Cover' in July 2015.

We look forward to continuing our work with you from our new home.
