ARPC executive team update

Dr Christopher Wallace, Chief Executive of Australian ReinsurancePool Corporation, has announced changes to the ARPC senior executive team.

Michaela Flanagan, previously ARPC Chief Operating Officer (COO), has joined Swiss Re as Head of Branch Operations ANZ, with responsibility for property/casualty, life and health reinsurance operations in Australia.

“I would like to congratulate Michaela on her new role in the reinsurance industry and thank her for her significant contribution to ARPC,” said Dr Wallace.

Janice Nand has been appointed Acting COO while ARPC completes the recruitment process for a Chief Strategy and Operating Officer.

Ms Nand joined ARPC in February 2019 from the Royal Commission into Misconduct in the Banking, Superannuation and Financial Services industry where she worked as a Director, Report. Before her role with the Royal Commission, she worked as a Partner with HWL Ebsworth Lawyers in Canberra and with Sparke Helmore Lawyers in Sydney.
